

DISCLOSURE OF IDENTITY OF INTEREST

The undersigned hereby certifies that, except as noted below, there is not now, nor does the undersigned contemplate that there will be, any identity of interest between (a) the seller and purchaser of this project, (b) the owner and general contractor and/or any subcontractor, material supplier, or equipment lessor, or (c) the owner and lender. It is further certified that, except as noted, there are not and have not been any such relationships between the seller or purchaser (owner) of this project and the lender, general contractor, and/or any subcontractor, material supplier, or equipment lessors. The undersigned hereby agrees to immediately report to the City of Boise (City) any such identity of interest relationships which occur in the future with respect to this property even though such relationships are not now anticipated.

All references to "identity of interest" herein are made in the context of the definition below, which has been read by the undersigned.

Identity of interest between the owner(s) or (purchaser(s) as parties of the first part and the seller(s), lender(s), general contractor(s), subcontractor(s), material supplier(s), or equipment lessor(s) as party(ies) of the second part will be construed as existing under any of the following conditions:

- 1) When there is any financial interest of or family relationship between the party of the first part in the party of the second part;
- 2) When one or more of the partners, officers, directors or stockholders of the party of the first part is also a partner, officer, director, or stockholder of or has financial interest in the party of the second part;
- 3) When the seller, general contractor, subcontractor, material supplier and/or equipment lessor advances any funds to the party of the first part;
- 4) When the party of the second part takes stock or any interest in the party of the first part as payment;
- 5) When any of the above stated interrelationships exist between the parties of the second part;
- 6) When there exist or come into being any side deals, agreements, contracts or undertakings entered into or contemplated, which alter, amend, or cancel any of the costs related to property purchase, rehabilitation work, new construction work, or other amounts used to calculate contracts;
- 7) When any relationship exists which would give the owner, or seller, or lender or general contractor control or influence over the cost of the rehabilitation or new construction contract or the price paid to the subcontractors, material suppliers or equipment lessors.

Exceptions to certification regarding identities of interest (if none, so state):
