

JULIA DAVIS ROSE GARDEN CONCEPT

③ Concrete Path

- Restoring the ADA accessibility with concrete walkways

④ ADA Gravel Path

- Secondary walkways through garden.
- ADA accessible
- Durable against heavy traffic
- Rustic aesthetic compliments the garden
- Suitable for all weather conditions

⑤ Event Space

- Formal lawn area to host events such as weddings
- Adjacent lawn areas to allow for expansion of event space as needed

⑥ Children's Garden

- Interactive garden area for children to learn and play with a selection of plants that a variety of sensory traits that appeal to touch, sight and smell
- The diversity of these plants may help children learn about many of the
- Meditative space offering a mix of a both traditional and native plant palette
- Contrast with the traditional Rose Garden increases interest and diversity

Rose Bed Layout

① Roses Along ADA Gravel Path

- Secondary walkways through garden
- ADA accessible

② Roses Along Grass

- Act as tertiary pathways through garden that are less traveled
- Minimum width allows for proper irrigation of grass without effecting roses

JULIA DAVIS ROSE GARDEN CONCEPT

Concept Renderings

View Ⓐ

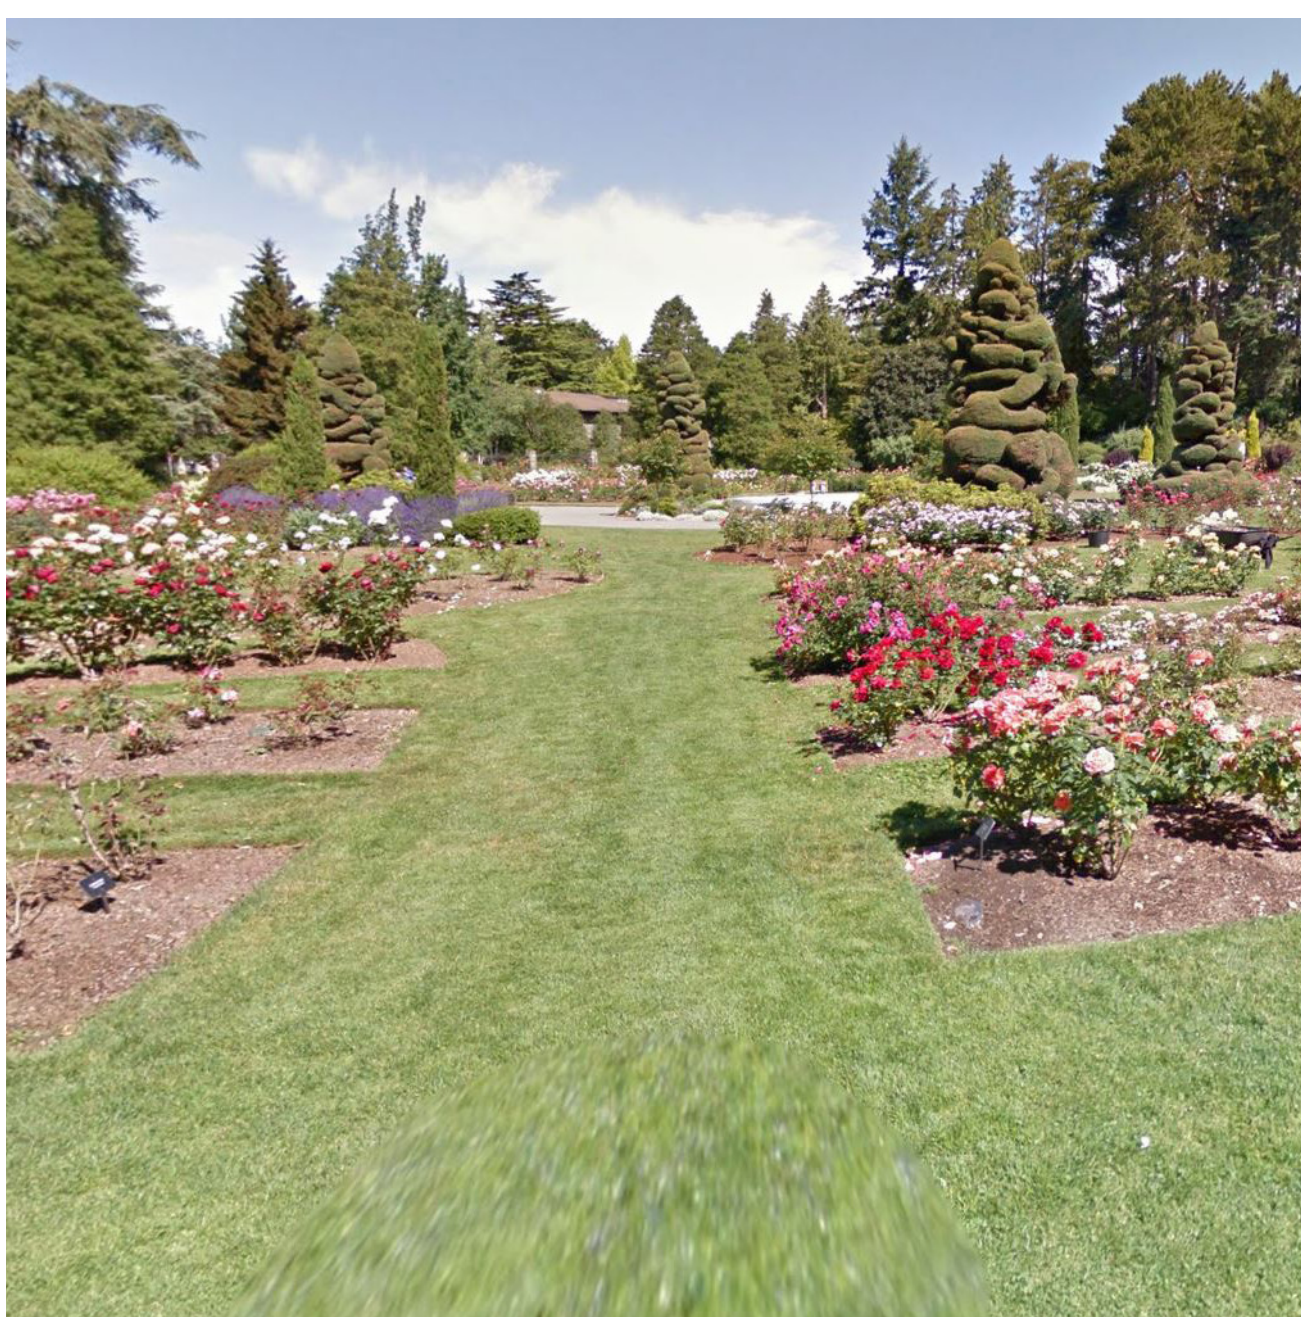

View Ⓑ

Precedence

International Test Rose Garden
Portland, Oregon

Woodland Park Rose Garden
Seattle, Washington

Rose Hill Garden
Spokane, Washington

Plant Palette

Sensory Garden Shrubs

Wintergreen Korean Boxwood
Creeping Juniper
Pfitzer Juniper
Silver Border Rhagodia
Japanese Yew

Pollinator Plants

Rocky Mountain Columbine
Showy Fleabane
Arrowleaf Buckwheat
Blue Fescue
Coneflower

Sensory Plants

Pasque Flower
Showy Milkweed
Rubber Rabbitbrush
Queen Anne's Lace
Giant Hens and Chickens
Persian Lily
Prairie Smoke
Red Hot Poker
Oregano

Mountain Mint
Purple Common Sage
Elderberry
Salad Burnet
Red Birds in a Tree
Wooly Thyme