PIQ INSTRUCTIONS

- Fill out this form electronically. Handwritten responses will not be accepted.
- Carefully read all instructions for each section, including the advisements on the second page.
- Read each question carefully before responding.
- Your responses must be specific and direct. As your ability to write a statement which accurately describes an occurrence will be evaluated, you are expected to explain in detail.
- Full disclosure is required. All questions must be answered completely, accurately, and truthfully.
- Vague, ambiguous, misleading, or unanswered responses will be cause for rejection.
- Be honest. We interview a lot of people about you in the background investigation.
- If you respond "yes" to a question you must explain all occurrences.
- For those questions where there is not a space provided to explain your response, please write your answers on the spaces following each section. There are additional spaces at the end of the document if needed.
- When you see the word "ever" it means your entire lifetime.
- There are many questions on this rating tool that may make you uncomfortable. The answers to some of these questions may preclude you from continuing in the hiring process.
- We EXPECT candidates to have made mistakes. The distance of time can soften the effects of a mistake.
- If in doubt or not sure about a question, answer yes and explain. We want to have the conversation.
- If a date is requested, try to be as close as you can. Narrow down to month, year, time of year, etc.
- Try to reply to things in chronological order.
- Do not minimize or rationalize. We want facts, not excuses.
- We conduct a polygraph.

ADVISEMENT

This Personal Information Questionnaire (PIQ) is designed to evaluate and screen applicants in the PRELIMINARY stages of the background investigative process. A complete background packet containing an in-depth Personal History Statement and other forms will be required if the background investigation continues. Information provided in this PIQ will be used in the investigation into your background to assist in determining your fitness and suitability for a public safety position with the Boise Police Department. BPD has both a legal and moral obligation to ensure its applicants are law-abiding persons of good moral character. Along with many other attributes, we are seeking applicants with high integrity, ethics, and who will make a credible witness in court. We are looking for honest people. Please be as specific as possible in your answers.

HONESTY IS ESSENTIAL

This confidential pre-investigative questionnaire is designed to assist background detectives in conducting a preliminary background screening. Follow up and additional questions will be asked as the investigation continues. Your responses will be verified during a comprehensive background investigation, which includes a truth verification examination and in-depth interviews with you and those who know you.

It is imperative that you answer all questions truthfully. Credibility is vital to this position. We are not expecting to find applicants who have never made mistakes. There is no such thing as a perfect person or perfect candidate. As your prospective employer, we are not looking for perfection; rather, we want an open and honest opportunity to evaluate your qualifications fairly for this position. Generally, in some cases, time heals mistakes. We will evaluate several factors when reviewing your questionnaire.

You are responsible for the accuracy of information on this form. It is your responsibility to make certain that the information is complete and correct. Please note that deliberate misstatements, withholding or omitting information, providing half-truths and/or incomplete, vague, or misleading statements on this form will disqualify you from potential employment, regardless of the nature or reason. If during our background process, we discover that your responses on this questionnaire were inaccurate, untrue, or misleading, you will be disqualified. Read questions thoroughly before answering.

LEGAL QUESTIONS

All applicants applying for employment with the Boise Police Department are required to disclose their prior involvement in illegal acts. You are required to disclose acts that you have committed even if you were never caught, arrested or prosecuted. Inconsistent statements made in this document could result in disqualification.

You are required to answer questions about misdemeanors and felonies you may have committed at any time in your life. With respect to questions about legal processes initiated against you (detentions, arrests, plea bargains, diversions and/ or convictions), you may have a legal right to answer "No".

DISCLOSURE OF MEDICALLY-RELATED INFORMATION

In accordance with the U.S. Americans with Disabilities Act, at this stage of the hiring process, applicants are not expected or required to reveal any medical or other disability-related information about themselves in response to questions on this form, or to any other inquiry made prior to receiving a conditional offer of employment.

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

Your completed form is treated as a highly confidential document. The original form becomes a permanent part of your background file and will not be released to any other party without your signed authorization or by order of a competent court.

Any questions should be directed to Police Personnel or City of Boise Human Resources.
